tery drawing and many ticket holders one numbers drew prizes ranging from $75 to $150. The thirty-second number, the president announcing the next drawing to come off April 8th next, and the scheme to comprise 10,000 gifts. A number of the most prominent citizens of Louisville took part in the drawing, and were on the stage during the day, and several prominent citizens from other states the diamond swindle.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—J. B. Cooper's statement to the executive committee of Harpending Diamond company is to the following effect: "Was book-keeper of the diamond drill company here; knew Arnold six years; Arnold knew much about diamonds; learned more of Cooper about way in which they were deposited by nature, and the kind of ground he thought could produce diamonds. Cooper said the diamonds were generally found in beds of extinct rivers in tropical countries in gravelly soil. Arnold said in Arizona he saw an Indian chief's wife with a bracelet of sparkling stones, and obtained it from her, and said he would go back and look for the deposits, and on his return told Cooper he had a 'big thing' in view.
Slack and himself were the only persons who knew the secret, and offered Cooper great inducements to get him into the scheme. In 1871 he made a trip with Arnold and Slack to New Mexico, and collected a number of rubies and returned to this city, and decided to get large capitalists interested in the plans. Arnold suggested overtures to Harpending, a gentleman of high standing and convenient in money matters. Arnold then wrote to Harpending, in London, asking his cooperation in developing the diamond mines. Arnold and Slack then went to New York and enlisted Barlow. When Harpending reached that city from London, Arnold exhibited the gems. A counsel was held, and Harpending came to San Francisco to form the company. Arnold now saw he might make a bold strike, and took $50,000, crossed the Canada line, and sailed from Quebec to London. In London he made the acquaintance of two American sailors, whom he paid $500 each, bound by oath of secrecy to concealed business, ordered them to go to different jewellers in London and buy diamonds; got in that way $37,000 worth of them; took the steamer for Quebec, crossed the border, and went to St. Louis, thence to Arizona; brought a large lot of rubies, garnet and sapphires, and then returned to San Francisco, and had a counsel with Cooper, Robert, Harpending, Arnold and Dodge, and then went to New York, but Wall street men were sharp and they did not meet with much success; they wanted some one in whom New York men could place confidence; Janin was suggested; Janin was consulted and permitted to test some diamonds. He then accepted the offer to go to the field; but Slack and Arnold were to go ahead to Denver, and pilot them from that place to the field. They went on and selected a place near Bonner mountain, and on a few acres of ground scattered diamonds and other precious stones, and the party was piloted into the field, and they hunted for diamonds. At the close of each day Arnold would tell Janin the value of the gems found during the day, and on this Janin made a report.
Party then took the train for San Francisco; but Slack remained to watch the claims, and above all to recover the precious stones deposited there by Arnold." Thus far elicited from the witness.

BOSTON, Dec. 7.—The executive and finance relief committees for the aid of sufferers, state that the central relief committee, who have charge of persons burnt out, comprising between 800 to 1,000 families, the committee for the assistance of men thrown out of employment, who received and investigated 15,000 applications, and the committee for the relief of women thrown out of employment, who received and investigated 4,800 applications severally, have given aid to all applicants who desired it, and they must continue to do so for some weeks. On this account the committee will require an additional sum for the proper completion of this work.

A careful estimate of our further wants, leads to the conviction that not less than $15,000 will be required to give relief, which ought still be given independently of the special fund for firemen. The sum at the disposal of the general committee is about $50,000, which will be exhausted in live the people of Boston are perfectly able to meet this demand without difficulty, and that they desire and ought to desire to meet it themselves.

STOCK GAMBLERS.
New York, Dec. 7.—A rumor pre-valled on the streets to-day, that several of the leading bankers and merchants propose to call a meeting of the chamber of commerce to take action in regard to merchants and bankers engaged with notorious stock gamblers in locking up money for the purpose of depressing and deranging business generally.

MAYOR HALL TO BE AN EDITOR.
New York, Dec. 7.—It is reported that Mayor Hall is to assume the editorial chair of the Herald, January 1st. Bennett shortly leaves on a two years' European trip.

DEATH OF A FAMOUS SURGEON.
New Orleans, Dec. 7.—Dr. Warren Stone, the famous surgeon, died this evening at 6 o'clock. He was sixty-five years of age.

MYSTERY EXPLAINED.
Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 7.—The mystery at Dover, Del., has been explained.
Professor West was not killed. It now turns out that he killed a colored man whom he hired temporarily. After the man was dead, he cut his hands and feet off and burned them. His object was to make the authorities believe the body was his, so that his wife could obtain an insurance of $25,000 on his life. He acknowledged he killed the negro, but in self-defence. West is now in jail.

THE SITUATION IMPROVING.

PARIS, Dec. 7.—The President of the committee of 30 met last night, and had a long and friendly conversation with President Thiers. The situation is believed to be improving.

THIERS AND THE COMMITTEE OF THIRTY.
PARIS, Dec. 7.—It is reported this evening that Thiers and the committee of thirty will act in unison in elaborating constitutional proposals to be submitted to the assembly. The appointments of Gouffard to be minister of the interior, Leon Hay, minister of finance, and fourteen ministers of public works are certain.
It is also announced that Calmont is to be appointed prefect of the department of the Seine, which is regarded as a concession to the party of the right.

AMERICANS WITH THE POPE.
ROME, Dec. 7.—A deputation of Americans had an audience with the pope yesterday, and presented addresses, expressing devotion of American Catholics to the holy see. The pope made a feeling response and concluded by giving his blessing to the Catholics of America.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 7.—The custom-house returning board this morning promulgated the election returns for members of the legislature, which differ materially from those promulgated Thursday by the governors' returning board. No election returns have yet been delivered by the state authorities to the custom-house board.
The Republican says: "We publish this morning the official report of the election of members of the legislature. This report has been unavoidably delayed by events that have excited the public even since the election, but it fortunately is in time for all practical purposes." It will be observed that there is a decided Republican majority in both branches of the general assembly. Federal troops still hold possession of the state-house. Two legislatures will probably assemble, one recognized by the governor, the other by the custom-house.

TO-DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The following was received this afternoon:

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 7.
Attorney General, Washington:
The returning board provided for by a law of 1870, under which an election was had, and which the court sustains, promulgated in the official journal this morning the result of the election for legislature.
The house stands 77 Republicans to 32 Democrats. The board counted the ballots attached to affidavits of colored persons wrongfully prevented from voting, filed with the chief supervisor.

[Signed] S. P. PACKARD, United States Marshal.

CITIZENS DISOBTAINED.
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 7.—This evening prominent capitalists and property-holders held a meeting, at which it was resolved that a delegation of representative men of the city, be at once dispatched to Washington to represent the exact status of affairs to the government. The committee was authorized to pledge the fealty and support of the people to the president in any measure tending toward centralization it may be the policy of the government to adopt, merely asking to be relieved of the self-constituted agents who, in the name of Gen. Grant their case to the attorney general this afternoon. The result of the conference is not different from that which concluded their interview with Judge Williams yesterday, namely: "That the government will not interfere unless some question arises under the constitution calling for federal intervention."

THE PERIL IN WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Telegrams were received here to-day by Louisiana members of congress, and officers of the government, giving statements from both sides. Private advices contain substantially the same information already conveyed, though each side denounces the other as assuming possession of the state in violation of all right. They request that the points of their respective statements be laid before the president for action of the Federal government. It is stated upon official authority that it is the intention of the government to sustain the U. S. court its decrees. This has already been communicated by telegraph to gentlemen in New Orleans who requested official advice in the premises.

VISITORS.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—A large number of visitors paid their respects to the president to-day; among them were A. G. Curtin, Senator Wilson and several other senators and representatives.

SOLDIER'S HOME.
The commissioners of the soldier's home, with the approval of the president and secretary of war, decided to increase and improve the grounds of that institution by the purchase of the Harwood country seat of Mr. Corcoran, near the home.
The terms of purchase are very advantageous to the home.

WANT A CANDIDATE.
BOSTON, Dec. 7.—The Republicans are unable to get anyone to be a candidate for mayor, the last nominee, E. S. Tuley, having declined. In the meantime the citizen's movement has been started by the nomination of H. S. Pierce, who declined the straight Republican nomination, with a ticket of aldermen, including four Democrats.

HORSE DISEASE.
INCREASE IN SICK HORSES.
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 7.—The epidemic is still on the increase, and there are but few animals except mules and oxen now seen on the streets. All street railroads have withdrawn their cars, except the Fifth street and Franklin avenue lines, and they are only running a limited number of cars. Chief Engineer Sexton to-day organized companies of twenty-five men at each fire engine-house, and meetings are to be held to-morrow to organize a volunteer force in each fire district to act in conjunction with the paid men. It is now thought by those most intimate with the horse malady, including veterinary surgeons, that it will easily disappear in the course of a week or ten days.

WEATHER REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—In the Northwest, south to the Upper lakes and southward to the Ohio valley southwesterly winds, threatening weather, followed by and Gulf states clear and cool weather,

THE "THALIA."

A SINNER'S ADVICE.

Be wise, and repair to the "Thalia" saloon.
Where citizens gather, morn, even, and noon;
'Tis there you get Oysters and Turkey and
In every style desired;—also, Sugar cured Hams.

Oh, as for the Drinks!—they're superior and fine—
No bogus potato-bug broth, I am sure, But genuine Liquors, as mild as May, Warm you just right and enliven your spirits.

"Our" Jackel will brew you a capital Punch.
Or draw you a glass of prime Lager for Lunch;
Each morn you'll find there a bountiful spread; Roast and boiled, hot soup, with excellent bread;
Of all Cairo's saloons, the "Thalia's" ahead!

No drunkards or rowdies are bobbing around.
No "ropers" or gamblers are there to be found;
So hie thee to Jackel's for Oysters and "chick." And if he don't suit you, then call me a witch.

The mocking bird tunes up his whistle to wile.
Your musical taste in a wonderful style; Gerautums and hysanthes, there may be seen.
The windows, adorned with beautiful green How few are the cooks that can properly stew The delicious bivalves, (which you know to be true,
But A. Jackel has got the whole science by heart—Slew, broil or pattee—he is "boss" of the art.

On Washington avenue, corner of Twelfth,
In safety and peace you can drink a friend's health;
There, too, you can read all the news of the day;
And moderate the charges he asks you to pay.

Old Christmas is coming, and then you'll find
The patrons of "Thalia" are not lost to mind;
He will show you a sample of what he can do,
